NARRATIVE:

Arderly, a registered sex offender and a Grape Street gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include annoying/molesting a victim under 18, carrying a concealed weapon on person, possession of fraudulent checks, shooting in an inhabited dwelling, possession of a controlled substance, and violation of parole supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a five (5) year term for shooting at an inhabited dwelling. Arderly was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January, 28th 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Arderly qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of narcotic controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, status as a sex offender and a gang member as well as his current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted.
